The Cuyahoga County Charter states that the taxpayers will have “focused, effective and accountable leadership; job creation and economic growth as a fundamental government purpose; collaborative leadership with Cleveland, suburbs and others within the public and private sectors; an improved focus on equity for all our communities and citizens; long-term regional and global competitiveness; and significant taxpayer savings by streamlining and eliminating unnecessary elected offices”.

Please join us as Armond Budish and Jack Schron, candidates for Cuyahoga County Executive, respond to specific questions regarding their plans for the county’s future.
