All of Northeast Ohio benefits from the increasing good news showcasing Greater Cleveland as a highly-preferred and vibrant destination for leisure and business travel, high profile events and conventions. This community vitality resulted in an estimate of 16.2 million visitors to Cuyahoga County in 2013 with over $7.4 billion contributed to the local economy.

Please join us as David Gilbert discusses his vision for promoting Greater Cleveland and the impact of the estimated 50,000 people and $200 million that will be spent by the visitors traveling to Northeast Ohio in July 2016.
